QUIKRETE®, PAVESTONE®, CUSTOM® BUILDING PRODUCTS HIT PRIME TIME HOME FREE PREMIERES WEDNESDAY, JULY 22 (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT) ON FOX

ATLANTA (July 21, 2015) – Catch QUIKRETE®, Pavestone® and Custom® Building Products on HOME FREE, FOX’s new unscripted competition series featuring couples vying to win their dream home, when it premieres Wednesday, July 22 (9:00-10:00 PM ET/PT). The show is hosted by famed professional contractor Mike Holmes (“Holmes on Homes®”) and features nine deserving couples in challenges to revive one run-down home every week using a variety of products including those from QUIKRETE®, Pavestone® and Custom® Building Products.

During each episode Holmes will present the couples with tasks designed to test and challenge the skills of these do-it-yourself enthusiasts. Holmes will be with the competitors every step of the way – picking apart their work and demanding they meet his high standards, while also sharing his expertise and guidance to help them reach new heights. When the work is done for the day, the couples don’t have far to travel to get home...because not only must they work together to restore the home, they must all live together in the same dilapidated work site 24/7. The more they accomplish, the better they sleep at night. Each week, the couples with the best work will move forward in the competition, while the couple who didn’t perform up to code will face elimination. In a major twist, just when the eliminated couple thinks they have lost it all, they learn that they have actually won – a new home!

“A home is way more than brick and mortar. So being part of this new series and partnering with FOX is truly exciting for me,” said Holmes. “I’m ready to break ground with these couples. It’s going to be a lot of sweat and tears but I promise you, all worth it in the end...trust me on this.”
